Updated information in relation to the 1103 19th St. S. Shooting Investigation

At this point in the investigation, Vernon Albert Allen has been identified as the tenant that was involved in the shooting. After careful consideration and consultation with the Clay County Attorney's Office, Mr. Allen is no longer being detained and there are no Criminal charges pending against him at this time. The deceased has been transported to the Ramsey County Medical Examiner Office for examination. We are still attempting to identify the deceased and continue to request anyone with information that may assist with his identification to please contact the Moorhead Police Department at (218) 299-5103.

The circumstances which led to the shooting have been reviewed and there are no criminal charges pending at this time. Mr. Allen has been cooperative with the investigation and has the right to return home at this time after a very disturbing critical incident.
