

A Personal Inventory for Prospective Moorhead Police Volunteers

The Moorhead Police Volunteers are an integral component of the services we provide to the Community.

In considering whether to become a Moorhead Police volunteer, please consider the ideas expressed below:

- You have an interest in the community and have the desire to help others. You have some awareness of what is drawing you to the law enforcement arena.
- You are sensitive to the special attitude required to provide customer service to citizens.
- You are open to listening to others who may be under stress, angry, or frustrated.
- As you may be called on to work in a variety of areas and perform many different tasks, self-reliance, flexibility and adaptability are assets and a realistic awareness of your own strengths and weaknesses.
- You like working as part of a team, and must be willing to support and be supported by other team members.
- You are willing to commit yourself to the training and to the volunteer responsibilities that follow, and to gaining an understanding of the standards and policies of the Moorhead Police Department.
- You understand that as a Moorhead Police volunteer, staff will depend upon you to do your part.